

FIRST READING

A reading from the prophet Jeremiah
20:7-9

You have seduced me, Lord, and I have let myself be seduced; you have overpowered me: you were the stronger. I am a daily laughing-stock, everybody's butt. Each time I speak the word, I have to howl and proclaim: 'Violence and ruin!' The word of the Lord has meant for me insult, derision, all day long. I used to say, I will not think about him, I will not speak in his name any more. Then there seemed to be a fire burning in my heart, imprisoned in my bones. The effort to restrain it wearied me, I could not bear it.

The Word of the Lord.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

*R./ My soul is thirsting for You,
O Lord My God.*

SECOND READING

A reading from the Letter of St Paul to the Romans
12:1-2

Think of God's mercy, my brothers, and worship him, I beg you, in a way that is worthy of thinking beings, by offering your living bodies as a holy sacrifice, truly pleasing to God. Do not model yourselves on the behaviour of the world around you, but let your behaviour change, modelled by your new mind. This is the only way to discover the will of God and know what is good, what it is that God wants, what is the perfect thing to do.

The Word of the Lord.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

*Alleluia, alleluia!
May the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ
enlighten the eyes of our heart,
that we might see how great is the hope
to which we are called.
Alleluia!*

GOSPEL

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew 16:21-27

Jesus began to make it clear to his disciples that he was destined to go to Jerusalem and suffer grievously at the hands of the elders and chief priests and scribes, to be put to death and to be raised up on the third day. Then, taking him aside, Peter started to remonstrate with him. 'Heaven preserve you, Lord,' he said. 'This must not happen to you.' But he turned and said to Peter, 'Get behind me, Satan! You are an obstacle in my path, because the way you think is not God's way but man's.' Then Jesus said to his disciples, 'If anyone wants to be a follower of mine, let him renounce himself and take up his cross and follow me. For anyone who wants to save his life will lose it; but anyone who loses his life for my sake will find it. What, then, will a man gain if he wins the whole world and ruins his life? Or what has a man to offer in exchange for his life? 'For the Son of Man is going to come in the glory of his Father with his angels, and, when he does, he will reward each one according to his behaviour.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

22nd SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME - Year A
2nd / 3rd September, 2017

*Heavenly Father,
whose Word burns like a fire within us,
grant us a bold and faithful spirit,
that in Your strength
we may be unafraid to speak Your Word and follow where You lead.
We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Amen.*

FOCUS ON THE READINGS

Both of our readings focus on the cost of obedience to the will of God.

Jeremiah is constantly ridiculed and persecuted for being the bearer of God's Word to the people. His message, and he, are rejected, yet he remains faithful.

In our Gospel for today, Jesus warns his disciples He himself will suffer and even be killed for being faithful to God's message. The focus then shifts to the disciples: those who want to follow Jesus must accept the same cross, the willingness to be faithful, even if it means giving their lives.

What Jeremiah experienced and Jesus died for, the disciples must accept – the world is opposed to the message of God.
