

FIRST READING

A reading from the prophet Isaiah

13:33-37

You, Lord, yourself are Our Father, Our Redeemer is your ancient name.

Why, Lord, leave us to stray from your ways and harden our hearts against fearing you?

Return, for the sake of your servants, the tribes of your inheritance. Oh, that you would tear the heavens open and come down – at your Presence the mountains would melt.

No ear has heard, no eye has seen any God but you act like this for those who trust him.

You guide those who act with integrity and keep your ways in mind. You were angry when we were sinners; we had long been rebels against you.

We were all like men unclean, all that integrity of ours like filthy clothing. We have all withered like leaves and our sins blew us away like the wind.

No one invoked your name or roused himself to catch hold of you. For you hid your face from us and gave us up to the power of our sins And yet, Lord, you are Our Father;

we the clay, you the potter, we are all the work of your hand.

The Word of the Lord.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

*R./ Lord, make us turn to You,
let us see Your face
and we shall be saved. .*

SECOND READING

A reading from the First Letter of St. Paul to the Corinthians 1:3–9

May God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ send you grace and peace.

I never stop thanking God for all the graces you have received through Jesus Christ.

I thank him that you have been enriched in so many ways, especially in your teachers and preachers; the witness to Christ has indeed been strong among you so that you will not be without any of the gifts of the Spirit while you are waiting for our Lord Jesus Christ to be revealed; and he will keep you steady and without blame until the last day, the day of our Lord Jesus Christ, because God by calling you has joined you to his Son, Jesus Christ; and God is faithful.

The Word of the Lord.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!

*Lord, show us Your mercy and love,
and grant us Your salvation.*

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark 13:33-37

Jesus said to his disciples: 'Be on your guard, stay awake, because you never know when the time will come. It is like a man travelling abroad: he has gone from home, and left his servants in charge, each with his own task; and he has told the doorkeeper to stay awake. So stay awake, because you do not know when the master of the house is coming, evening, midnight, cockcrow, dawn; if he comes unexpectedly, he must not find you asleep. And what I say to you I say to all: Stay awake!

The Gospel of the Lord.

First Sunday of Advent - Year B

2nd & 3rd December, 2017

*Lord God, in this Advent time,
help us to see Your Son, Jesus Christ,
in those around us, and in all experiencing difficulty.
May we be filled with hope in His promises,
and accept the challenge to spread that hope to the world,
through the proclamation of Your Good News.
We ask this through Christ our Lord.*

FOCUS ON THE READINGS

Our God is coming! Stay awake! Be ready!

Culturally, we are accustomed to thinking of all of Advent as preparation for the birth of Jesus. But liturgically, we find a quite different emphasis. Only on the Fourth Sunday of Advent do we focus on the birth of Jesus, the Messiah. The first Sunday reminds us of the coming of Christ at the end of time. The second and third Sundays focus on the acceptance of Christ in our lives today, through baptism. It is this tension between the present and the future that gives meaning to the fourth Sunday and, indeed, to our celebration of the historical birth at Christmas.

Our first reading today tells us that, in spite of God's continued love and care, the chosen people have sinned – they have wandered away from their covenant relationship with their creator. They cry out again for redemption.
