

FIRST READING

A reading from the prophet Isaiah 56:1,6-7

Thus says the Lord: Have a care for justice, act with integrity, for soon my salvation will come and my integrity be manifest. Foreigners who have attached themselves to the Lord to serve him and to love his name and be his servants – all who observe the sabbath, not profaning it, and cling to my covenant – these I will bring to my holy mountain. I will make them joyful in my house of prayer. Their holocausts and their sacrifices will be accepted on my altar, for my house will be called a house of prayer for all the peoples.

The Word of the Lord.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

R./ O God, let all the nations praise you!

SECOND READING

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Romans
11:13-15, 29-32

Let me tell you pagans this: I have been sent to the pagans as their apostle, and I am proud of being sent, but the purpose of it is to make my own people envious of you, and in this way save some of them. Since their rejection meant the reconciliation of the world, do you know what their admission will mean? Nothing less than a resurrection from the dead! God never takes back his gifts or revokes his choice. Just as you changed from being disobedient to God, and now enjoy mercy because of their disobedience, so those who are disobedient now – and only because of the mercy shown to you – will also enjoy mercy eventually. God has imprisoned all men in their own disobedience only to show mercy to all mankind.

The Word of the Lord.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

*Alleluia, alleluia!
Jesus preached the Good News of the kingdom,
and healed all who were sick.
Alleluia!*

GOSPEL

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew 15:21-28

Jesus left Gennesaret and withdrew to the region of Tyre and Sidon. Then out came a Canaanite woman from that district and started shouting, 'Sir, Son of David, take pity on me. My daughter is tormented by a devil.' But he answered her not a word. And his disciples went and pleaded with him. 'Give her what she wants,' they said 'because she is shouting after us.' He said in reply, 'I was sent only to the lost sheep of the House of Israel.' But the woman had come up and was kneeling at his feet. 'Lord,' she said 'help me.' He replied, 'It is not fair to take the children's food and throw it to the house-dogs.' She retorted, 'Ah yes, sir; but even house-dogs can eat the scraps that fall from their master's table.' Then Jesus answered her, 'Woman, you have great faith. Let your wish be granted.' And from that moment her daughter was well again.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Take a break from all the chaos of life and spend time alone with Jesus today. You will find peace, strength and hope when you leave your burdens at His feet.

TWENTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME - Year A 19th / 20th August, 2017

*God of the nations, to Your table all are invited and in Your family
no one is a stranger.
Satisfy the hunger of all who gather in this house of prayer, and mercifully extend to all peoples of the earth,
the joy of Your salvation.
We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Amen.*

FOCUS ON THE READINGS

Our readings focus mainly on the universality of God's church. The reading from Isaiah tells us that the day is coming when people from every nation will come to praise and worship God. For God, this equality, this unity, is a matter of justice. The people are commanded to act in the same way.

This prophecy from Isaiah is clearly realized in Jesus and especially in today's Gospel. The point of the story is that a Canaanite woman – a foreigner, a non-Jew – shows faith in Jesus and is welcomed by him her faith is an act of praise, for which Jesus praises her!
