

FIRST READING

A reading from the book of Exodus 22:20-26

The Lord said to Moses, ‘Tell the sons of Israel this, “You must not molest the stranger or oppress him, for you lived as strangers in the land of Egypt. You must not be harsh with the widow, or with the orphan; if you are harsh with them, they will surely cry out to me, and be sure I shall hear their cry; my anger will flare and I shall kill you with the sword, your own wives will be widows, your own children orphans.

“If you lend money to any of my people, to any poor man among you, you must not play the usurer with him: you must not demand interest from him.

“If you take another’s cloak as a pledge, you must give it back to him before sunset. It is all the covering he has; it is the cloak he wraps his body in; what else would he sleep in? If he cries to me, I will listen, for I am full of pity.”

The Word of the Lord.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

R/ I love You, Lord, my strength.

SECOND READING

A reading from the first letter of St. Paul to the Thessalonians 1:5-10

You observed the sort of life we lived when we were with you, which was for your instruction, and you were led to become imitators of us, and of the Lord; and it was with the joy of the Holy Spirit that you took to the gospel, in spite of the great opposition all round you. This has made you the great example to all believers in Macedonia and Achaia since it was from you that the word of the Lord started to spread – and not only throughout Macedonia and Achaia, for the news of your faith in God has spread everywhere. We do not need to tell other people about it: other people tell us how we started the work among you, how you broke with idolatry when you were converted to God and became servants of the real, living

God; and how you are now waiting for Jesus, his Son, whom he raised from the dead, to come from heaven to save us from the retribution which is coming.

The Word of the Lord.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!

*All who love me will keep my words,
and my Father will love them
and we will come to them.*

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew 22:34-40

When the Pharisees heard that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees they got together and, to disconcert him, one of them put a question, ‘Master, which is the greatest commandment of the Law?’ Jesus said, ‘You must love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and the first commandment. The second resembles it: you must love your neighbour as yourself. On these two commandments hang the whole Law, and the Prophets also.’

The Gospel of the Lord.

30th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME - Year A

28th & 29th October, 2017

Your love, O God, is boundless.

We who were strangers

have been made your children.

We who were defenceless

have been brought into your household.

Keep us mindful of Your deeds of mercy,

that we may love You with all our hearts and love our neighbour as ourselves.

We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

FOCUS ON THE READINGS

Our readings focus on love of God and neighbour. Our first reading gives us a list of commandments relating to the treatment of others. The list includes foreigners, widows, orphans, the poor. In short, we are commanded to love everyone and to take special care of those in need.

The Gospel is a simple, straight-forward presentation of the “greatest commandment.” The focus is clear. Love of God and neighbour is not merely an option but the definition of what it means to be Christian.
